FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Del Medical Systems Group Enters into OEM Agreement with Analogic Corporation

Fast, Intuitive, Single- and Dual-Detector Digital Radiography Systems Feature Industry-Proven User Interface Designed to Improve Workflow

Franklin Park, IL -- November 28, 2007 -- Del Global Technologies Corp. (OTCBB: DGTC) ("Del Global" or "the Company") today announced it has signed a three-year supply agreement with Analogic Corporation (NASDAQ: ALOG), an OEM supplier of high-performance medical imaging systems. Del Medical will market and sell advanced single- and dual-detector digital radiography systems designed and manufactured by Analogic for high-volume general radiography, emergency, and orthopedic applications. These systems include an intuitive Graphical User Interface (GUI) with touch-screen control, and standard DICOM 3.0, featuring Query, Print, Store, and Modality Worklist capabilities. The terms of the agreement include worldwide distribution rights and onsite service and support for Del Medical's customers. Other terms were not disclosed.

According to M. Thomas Boon, Vice President of Global Sales & Marketing for the Del Medical Systems Group, "Del Medical is known for product quality and reliability, so we choose our industry relationships carefully. Analogic is a leading OEM supplier of advanced imaging technology with installations in major hospitals throughout the world. This relationship will extend our digital radiography portfolio and capabilities for our customers, while providing them with the quality and support that they expect."
